Minute with Mike

One of my favorite Easter stories is told by Bob Hager from an East Texas Church. In this story he recounts that the Call to Worship had just been pronounced, starting the Easter Sunday service in the East Texas church. The choir started its processional, singing "Up From The Grave He Arose" as they marched in perfect step down the center aisle to the front of the church.

The last lady was wearing shoes with very slender heels. Without a thought for her fancy heels, she marched toward the grating that covered the hot air register in the middle of the aisle. Suddenly the heel of one shoe sank into one of the holes in the register grate. Instantly, she realized her predicament. Not wishing to hold up the men, without missing a step, she slipped out of her shoe and continued marching down the aisle.

The first man after her spotted the situation, and without losing a step, reached down and pulled up her shoe; but the entire grate came with it! Surprised, but still singing, the man kept going down the aisle, holding the grate with the attached shoe.

The next man in line stepped into the open register and disappeared from sight. The worship service took on a special meaning that Easter, for just as the choir ended with "Alleluia! Christ arose! A voice was heard under the church shouting, "I hope all of you are out of the way cause I'm coming out now."

The little girl closest to the aisle shouted down the register, "Come on, Jesus! We'll stay out of the way."

Remember to pray for our six churches without pastors: Mercy, Old Washington, Pilgrim's Rest, Saint Clair, Sale Creek, First, and Yellow Creek.

Happy Easter! He is alive, forevermore!

It is nice to hear birds singing and the frogs in ponds at night singing their songs as well. It is amazing to me how the good Lord watches over everything the way he does, and reminds me of the song regarding the sparrow, which states he watches over the sparrow so I know he watches me. How thankful I am that he takes care of us and watches over us on a daily basis, as I know I need all the help I can get on a daily basis and that comforts me, which I hope it does you as well.

The Children's Home is in need of: toilet paper, Kool-Aid for the summer, peanut butter, chips, cookies, canned goods like Ravioli etc., to help make lunches through the summer as the kids will soon be out of school and they will be fixing 3 meals a day instead of 2.

Remember to save the box tops for schools.
