WMU Minute by Sandra Young, TVBA WMU Dir.

When I was in elementary school many years ago, but still seems like yesterday, we had memory work. One of the poems I had to learn was "September Song". I think of this poem every September, as it talks about the changes of nature that occur during the month. However, I still remember it to this day. Are we encouraging the children or anyone we come in contact with scriptures that will help them in life, especially during those tough times?

VBS Reporting Form (mailed from Lifeway or in your handbook)- Submit online on TeD, or to TVBA.

Annual Church Profile's (ACP's) – due September 10th

ACP's provide vital information on how your church had a Kingdom impact and provides historical context for the past 91 years. There are three different forms to be completed.

1. Church Leadership Profile – reflects the current leaders
2. 2018 ACP Statistics – includes membership, baptisms, Bible Study, programs, missions, and financials
3. Supplemental Form – lists messengers and other info for the TVBA annual meeting, held at Garrison on Oct. 18th, 7pm

Call TVBA 775-6192 or text Stephanie 400-4756 if you need help. TVBA uses this information for the Annual meeting and in both books we publish each year.

Minute with Mike Young, D. Min.,
Associational Director of Missions

As we celebrate Labor Day I am reminded of a sermon illustration I heard years ago:

During a church service a man stood up and said, "Lord, use me!" The pastor tolerated the outburst without comment and returned to his sermon. The next Sunday during the service, the same man stood and repeated the same phrase. The pastor again ignored the interruption and resumed preaching. After church, the pastor handed the man a can of turpentine and a scraper, telling him to strip the paint from several rows of old pews. The next Sunday the same man rose in church and said, "Lord, use me, but only in an advisory capacity!" We need to understand what this man did not, that all labor can be used by God. Happy Labor Day!

Pray for our four churches seeking pastors: Bethel, Cranmore Cove, Ogden, and Union Fork.
